Debra McCracken, CPM
Vice President, Asset Management

Debra McCracken joined Fuller Group in November 2016 with a wealth of experience in Property Management in both Washington and Oregon. Debra began working in the real estate industry in 1990 and has had the opportunity to manage a wide range of property types from Class A High Rise to Light Industrial.

Formerly, Debra was an Associated Vice President with NAI Norris, Beggs & Simpson, where she worked for 15 years. Her duties included overseeing the daily operations of office, retail, industrial and condo assets throughout the Portland/Vancouver area. Additionally, she supervised an onsite staff and managed tenant and capital improvements.

Debra has earned the designation of Certified Property Manager (CPM) and is a licensed Real Estate Broker in the State of Washington. Her professional affiliations include the National Association of Realtors and she is a member and past president of the Institute of Real Estate Management Oregon Chapter.
