SCOTT HIGGINS
Vice President/Real Estate Broker

Scott joined our brokerage firm in May 2017. Although new to real estate brokerage, he has deep roots in Clark County. Raised in Camas by a general contractor, he learned the trade of permitting and building. After attending college at Florida College in Tampa he served as a minister locally for several years. For 10 years, he served on the Camas City Council leading the community in business-friendly growth while serving his constituents. In 2011 Scott was elected to serve as Mayor of Camas. He served until his retirement from public office in late 2018. His work in local government has given him a unique understanding of the business and real estate markets in Clark County. He is a leader, problem solver, and genuinely puts his clients' needs first. His reputation and character are widely known throughout the entire area. Scott welcomes the opportunity to earn your business and assist you in any of your commercial real estate needs.

Scott has been married for 27 years to Dr. Allison Higgins, a highly respected OB/GYN for PeaceHealth Medical Group. They have 2 talented daughters. Rachel is employed by Pepperdine University & Chloe is a Senior at Pepperdine University in Malibu, California.

In his free time, Scott enjoys family, friends, sports, and good food. A game of cribbage with wife Allison is always a competitive fun time. During football season, Friday nights will find him operating the first down chains for his mighty Camas Papermakers on the football field.
