

OFFICE REPORT

Clark County | November 2008

SUMMARY | TOTALS

The most significant change for this month's report in comparison to last month's was the impact due to the Columbian Newspaper's marketing of their former space. This added over 50,000 square feet of vacancy to the Vancouver CBD submarket and caused the Clark County vacancy rate to exceed 20% for the first time since the mid 1980's.

We are still seeing a lot of the same trends with inaction and uncertainty being the norm. Continue to expect additional tenants to falter, current tenants to renegotiate their rates, and new tenants to require significant concessions. There are a handful of prospects in the market with some trying to complete deals prior to Christmas, while the majority is waiting until mid-January to make decisions.
