Clark County | September 2010

SUMMARY | TOTALS

September was a very boring month for the Clark County Office Market. Of the relatively small number of commercial deals done in the marketplace this past month, I track only two, true office deals being completed. There has been some uptick in activity in regards to flex (office/warehouse) space in the marketplace, but in general, closings have been extremely slow for office product.

On the brighter side of things, general activity seems to be picking up in the marketplace with a number of tours and potential tenants wandering around in the marketplace. This activity will hopefully lead to more completed deals in the months ahead. One factor that seems to be playing a significant role is the income tax measure on the ballot this fall in Washington. A minimum of four deals are pending the outcome of that measure representing substantial square footage either moving into Clark County or staying out of it.
