Clark County | September 2011

SUMMARY | TOTALS

Activity as a whole started to slow down in September with fewer inquiries and less activity than the previous summer months. With that said, the vacancy rate went down and it was a positive month for Clark County with some absorption in almost all of the submarkets. Skewing the numbers a bit is the planned vacation of the Gifford Pinchot Forest Services Building. Though it is not totally clear if they will relocate in our market, renew, or do something else, it currently adds 40,000 square feet to the Orchards submarket muting some of the positive numbers we saw in the market last month.

Other than that, the market is much the same. Aggressive rates are still being sought and it is evermore important for landlords to do their best to keep the tenants they already have while going after new tenants in the marketplace. Rental rates still have not hit a bottom with ever aggressive deals being sought and agreed to. Short-term, as-is deals are still quite common and prevalent.
